

Britons are Happy if they will think so.

1505/155(9)

1792

ARE not the French Starving?
Yes.

What is the Reason?

Because the Jacobins have deprived them of their Corn, Money, Credit, Trade, and their Manufactories.

What have the French got instead of these Blessings.

Affinghatts.

Why is the price of bread now dear in England?

Because the English Jacobins have sent the Corn out of the Country to feed the Jacobins in France; and they would now deprive us of our Bread, our Money, our Credit, our Trade, and our Manufactories.

What shall we get in Return?

Affinghatts.

Why do the Jacobins hate King George?

Because the King has put a stop to their evil Designs, and is doing his utmost for the Happiness of his Subjects, whom he considers as his Brethren.

Then GOD bless KING GEORGE, and enable him to preserve to us our Bread, our Money, our Credit, our Trade, and our Manufactories.

Success to our Army and Navy.

No Exportation of Grain.

No Jacobins.

No Affinghatts.